

GENERAL NOTICE FOR CHANCE VACANCIES

- Information regarding vacancies will not be entertained before third week of March 2018. In this regard, kindly do not call the reception or send an enquiry/application through post or by hand.
- The school has no reserved seats/quota for any category of students. However, being a Catholic, minority, Anglo-Indian English Medium School, Christians are given preference.
- If at all there are any vacancies for any particular class, a detailed notice will be put up at the School Website as well as the Notice Board at the Reception. Please do not apply before you are intimated about the vacancy in a particular class.
- No applications will be received at the Reception until the notice is published in the website/school notice board.
- There will be no vacancies for classes 9 and 10.